

FOLK

Ehrhardt, S.C.

Dear Robert,

By the rising temperatures, I know it's reunion time again, I know, and I trust that you and your family are making plans to attend the Folk Reunion on the 26th. In fact, I'm writing to plead with you particularly to do so.

I have been thinking of someone to serve as president and have concluded that you could do us a fine service in that capacity, so I am asking if I may present your name as the nominating committee's recommendation for that position.

Now comes an even bigger request, but <sup>with</sup> an apology for waiting until the 11th hour. I thought Edith Jenny had attended to this, but perhaps you know she's been ill and she told me Saturday that she just can't remember sometimes after those treatments. Anyway, could you arrange to bring us the devotional thoughts - about 10-15 minutes -? I would have called since time is so short, but thought perhaps best to write and give you a time for consideration and the checking of your schedule. Then I'm asking you to call me your response. Please do so, reversing the charges, of course, at 3668.

We are meeting this year back at the Rivers Bridge State Park, beginning at 12 noon. Lemonade, plates, cups, forks, and napkins will be furnished.

I do hope that your consideration of these two requests will produce positive answers. We do need someone with spirit to revive us. I fear that my period of service has caused a lagging of interest, and I truly feel that you could light a spark in the group. So I know your meditation will be quite inspiring.

I hope to hear soon.

Affectionately,
Angelie H. Breland
