Have had little time to find anything for you, but it will be a pleasure to find for you whatever I can. Looked in "Meet Your Grandfather" by General Johnson Hagood in which I found Gideon Hagood of Barnwell District who had married, March 17, 1796, Miss Harriet Yonge of Charleston. Children: Elvira Ann who married (1) General John McPherson, 2) Reverend Elliot Estes by whom she left W. Brooks Lawton of Allendale (a grandson) Emma who also married a McPherson
Yonge Johnson

Could these be those whom you seek?

I chanced to see the name Hogwood somewhere between ~~between~~ Hampton and Williamsburg and at the time remarked to Sis I had just read this family was the only one in Warwick County, Va. to hold on to the lands originally to come into their possession. And General Hagood seems to have thought this name to have been a variation of the name of Sir John Hawkwood from whom the family may have descended.

I appreciate more than you can know your invitation to join the Society and will send my fee right away.

Thank you for your offer to help me with Old Barnwell District. It is gratefully accepted and when I may, would be glad to have your help with the records in Charleston.

Whenever you and Miss Cora find it possible to leave the Island we would like to have you both visit us in Williston.

Sincerely,

David Kennedy
