Notes for Mildred(Minnie) Lawton:

This is a poem found in an old scrapbook type journal in the Grffin House in Eastman, Ga. compiled by Sarah Willingham Griffin and maybe her sister Mildred. The poem was written by their mother Minnie to her husband Thomas Willingham the forth, about their first child Lee who died less than a year old.

To my husband:

Two years we've been together love.
We've mutual sorrows shared.
Perhaps they were sent by God above,
to make us more endeared.
How well do I remember, on that eve not long ago.
'Twas the eleventh of november, we were wed for weal or woe.
God added to our happy lot, our blessing and our joy.
'Twas in our lives our happiest spot, in this our baby boy.
How soon our blessings fade away, six happy months to us were given.
God took from us our brightest ray, to brighten his in heaven.
Yes dearest husband hand in hand, I'll climb the hill of life with thee.
And in that bright and radiant land, we'll ever clasp our angle Lee.
