Dear Robert,

Decided to go on and mail the Luther book and other papers to you, it has been a while. Many thanks for the use of all the material.

In "Marriages and Deaths in the Southern Christian Advocate", I found:

p.148 John Heape, Senr., d. 25 Jan 1848, 81years, Beaufort p287 Mary Heape, d. 29 May 1855, 81years, Beaufort, widow of John Heape, Senr.

Have info on several children of Henry William Jaudon, think I will make a separate sheet for them. ^{# 29?}

Give my best to Cora. Hope y'all have been well.

Sincerely,

Sarah

Have you seen the new 1860 Index to SC? It is great. The only "new" Jaudon I found was R. Jandon, 15F, student. William Curtis, Baptist Clergy, b. Eng. evidently a fairly large school of 160 all together. Livingston Springs, Spartanburg Co. Most probably Rosameller, daughter of Benjamin James and Martha, don't you think?
