

ot
x-
1;
tn
e-
a-
1-
d
s
t

Reginald S. Jaudon

Reginald Snooks "Snooksie" Jaudon, 86, died Sunday at Memorial Medical Center after a long illness.

He was born in Effingham County. He was a member of Rincon United Methodist Church, the W.W. Oglesby Sunday School Class and served as Sunday school superintendent for 30 years. He served in the Georgia Army National Guard for 18 years. He was a retired Effingham County Probate Court judge and served several terms as an Effingham County commissioner. He was a retired farmer, owner and operator of Jaudon's Dry Cleaners in Springfield for many years.

Surviving are his wife, Emily B. Jaudon of Rincon; two daughters, Merle J. Zittrouer of Garden City and Barbara J. Murphy of Rincon; three sons, R. deCaradeuc Jaudon of Rincon, R. Wendell Jaudon of Springfield and Joseph E. Jaudon of Savannah; 11 grandchildren; six step-grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; five step-great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

Funeral: 2 p.m. today at Rincon United Methodist Church, burial in Springfield Cemetery.

Thomas C. Strickland Funeral Home, Springfield Chapel.

Remembrances: Rincon United Methodist Church Building Fund, 107 Savannah Ave., Rincon 31326.