Gentlemen:

An Act to amend Section 65-602, Code of Laws of South Carolina was passed on May 24, 1972. The effect of this amendment was to include Eleemosynary and certain Cooperative Corporations under present Corporate License provisions. Excluded from the provisions are corporations organized for religious purposes.

You are required to file the attached CL Form 1 within sixty (60) days from date of this letter and pay $10.00 License Fee to the South Carolina Tax Commission. At the close of your present accounting period, additional forms will be furnished to be filed annually with payment of $10.00.

Certain Eleemosynary Corporations are exempt from S. C. Income Tax as organizations described in Section 65-226 of the 1962 Code of Laws of South Carolina, as amended. (See attached Code List)

You are required to file at this time a copy of your Corporate Charter ~~and By-Laws~~ for determination of exempt status for Income Tax purposes.

It is important that correct information be applied to each organization's request for exempt status. This can be done if proper NAME (From Corporate Charter), ADDRESS (Current and Permanent) and CODE (See attached Code List) are furnished this office on the form provided.

Yours truly,

SOUTH CAROLINA TAX COMMISSION
CORPORATION INCOME TAX DIVISION

Dear Mr. Coker:

In reference to your letter of 10 November addressed to The Lawton Family Foundation, Inc. which was intended to be an eleemosynary corporation not involving any shares, profits, licenses or reports, please note that the corporation was never able to secure a federal tax exempt status and therefore as of 30 December 1972 was officially dissolved and its charter surrendered to the Secretary of State.

The said former corporation never had any income or assets. There never existed anything to license or report.

With all good wishes, I remain

Very truly yours,

Rev. Robert E. H. Peeples
