

Estelle
Dear
My precious Laddie
This is your birth day my dear child
and life are then thinking of you and wishing I had a fine present for you but all I can offer is a Mother's love and a heart full of tender affection
hoping God will spare
your life many long years and make you a true sincere Christian so that when the battle of life confront you

You can bravely say
I know an opponent
I believe one you feel never fails
In his promises to hear the cry of those who suffer
His
hope all are right
and we will hear by tomorrow the pretty Candy came safely Papa & I went out to Ben John superior was not thus a few found all
a crowd
They had 52 to dinner
I was away too long table 3 settings 16
sugs nurses included Wm D George might where too all will go by the 1 Jan carried Bad her Aunt 7 yr old fell in the fire and brought to death and her own brother falling very rapidly she was then to her and was crowd out had been

on her feet for 2 weeks and sick from it. See, While I was gone Estelle pode to still push till she rode on again again I met Ethel at Bay City her mother was brought out last night & John I myself spent the entire week at their house wrote letters to but I was Hall and Ruby R. just had her broken. I married the second time & called "Horn Columbia" and I'm then yes and Lizzie told me the
