

Mrs Winston Lawton
417 Baker Boulevard
Estill, South Carolina 29918

March 3, 1982

Dear Bob,

Margaret Goetlee let me read her copy of Huguenot Transactions # 86. Your article was most interesting. I particularly enjoyed the reference to the ship wreck of the "Home" having long been intrigued by the monument in the Bostick (Robert, I believe) Cemetery.

If there is a way to buy a copy of # 86, I will be happy to do so.

Also of interest to me was the mention of Moravian College. I had always heard that The Rev. W.A. Lawton's wife went to school in Winston Salem (I thought Salem

(2)

Mrs Winston Lawton
417 Baker Boulevard
Estill, South Carolina 29918

College. Maybe Moravian was Salem first.) Perhaps she, Lucinda Landrum) met The Rev. W. A. through some of the Lawton girls who attended there.

Of course most of the people in the notes and your footnotes were more closely related to "Streak" than me; nevertheless, I certainly recognized the names.

Hope you and Cora are well.

Yours Truly,
Sarah