Edward Hyrne, Co. Norfolk, England, Merchant, is said in a record found in a Hyrne Bible, imprint of 1706, to have mar. Eliz., dau. of Sir Drayner Massingberd, Co. of Lincoln, Knight. This is supported by names found in the Hyrne family in S. C. According to Burke, Sir Drayner Massingberd of Ormsby, Co. Lincoln, mar. 1st, an heiress of the Burrell family, but had no issue by her; he inherited her estate, and his son by his 2nd wife was Burrell Massingberd, sheriff of Huntingdon in 1707, who in turn had sons, William Massingberd, who succeeded his father in 1728 and died 1802; also Francis Burrell Massingberd; these two, William and Francis, in the will of Burrell Massingberd Hyrne of S. C., (dated 1758) are mentioned as his cousins.

No will of the elder Edward Hyrne has yet been found, nor any of his wife Eliz., who apparently lived after 1725, as shown by the following: Mch. 11, 1725/6, a deed from George Atchison of Charles Town, merchant, conveys to Eliz. Hyrne of Charles Town, widow, and Henry Hyrne of the same place, merchant, 500 acres in Colleton Co.

"The memorial of the above Henry and Eliz. Hyrne, registered Apr. 27, 1733, states that the above 500 acres were in St. Pauls Parish, on a branch of Toobedoo Creek, bounding S. West on lands of Proprietor Blake."

Children of Edward and ^{1st wife} Eliz. (Massingberd) Hyrne, who lived to adult age:

1. Mary Hyrne, only daughter, "born 1690 or '91." The Hyrne Family, Vol. 22, S. C. Hist. and Gen. Q. gives, "Mary (Hyrne) Smith, of Goose Creek, died Nov. 1776, aged 86"; this places time of birth as 1690. Also, the year of birth given for the next younger child is, "1694, or earlier". Mary Hyrne, mar. 1713, as his 2nd wife, Second Landgrave Thomas Smith; seven sons and three dau. (Desc. p. 84.)
