

from Elan Summers

Miller, Our Family Circle

DESCENDANTS OF SECOND LANDGRAVE THOMAS SMITH AND FIRST WIFE, ANNA CORNELIA VAN MYDDAGH

Thomas Smith, 2nd Landgrave, b. at Exeter, Eng., 1663 or '64, came to Carolina with his parents and younger brother, George. He mar. 1st, in 1689, Ann Cornelia van Myddagh, "friend and companion of his father's second wife, Sabina de Vignon." (See Ashley River Settlements, S. C. H. G. Quarterly, for researches of Mr. Motte Alston Read, a Smith descendant.)

The 10 children of 2nd Landgrave Thomas Smith and his 1st wife, Anna Cornelia van Myddagh, were: Thomas III, George, Anne, Barbara, Sabina, Justina, Sarah, Rebecca, No. 1, Rebecca No. 2, and Joseph.

I. Thomas Smith III, eldest ch., born June 27, 1691, d. prior to his father's death in 1738. He mar. 1709, aged 18, ~~Dolly Dry~~ (Dolly Dry) "a girl beneath his station," for which he was disinherited. Their only son, Thomas IV, d. Dec. 10, 1736. (Circular Church register, Will of Thomas III, dated Dec. 3, 1729, probated Jan. 15, 1730.)

4 dau of John Ash & Mary Batt. II. If mar. in 1709 then born s. 1694 or 1695. She died before Mar. 1717

George Smith, 2nd ch. of 2nd Landgrave Smith and Anna C. Van Myddagh, born Aug. 2, 1693, died prior to 1738. He mar. first, Rebecca Blake, born 1699, oldest child of Gov. Joseph Blake and Elizabeth Axtell, wid. of Francis Turgis, and dau. of Landgrave Daniel Axtell and wife Rebecca. According to a Pringle Bible record, Rebecca Blake mar. Mch. 19, 1716, George Smith, son of second Landgrave Smith, and she "Dyed Oct. 20, 1719; aged 20 yrs. and 7 days." Their two children, George and Elizabeth Smith, d. in infancy.

*no authority
his gr; father's wife says he's underage & unmarried need 100 if it is the Thomas who he not born before 1716*

George Smith married as second wife, Dec. 18, 1723, Elizabeth Allen, b. Apr. 13, 1707, dau. of Andrew Allen, merchant of Charles Town, and not "Jane, dau. of Arthur and granddaughter of Madèra Allen." as given by Mrs. Poyas. "Pringle Entries" in S. C. Hist. and Gen. Quarterly, by Henry A. M. Smith, show conclusively that Elizabeth was a sister of Jane Allen, (dau. of

I do not have the S.C. Hist. Mag. with her. Ch. records - 6X66

I. Thomas Smith, III m. 1709 Mary (Dolly) Ash, daughter of John Ash and Mary Batt (who were illegally married while Ash's legal wife was alive). Thomas died 3 Dec 1729, same day he signed his will.