Dear Dr. Peeples,

The enclosed "book" is my current collection of the Smith clan and their allies. I'm continually adding to it as well as modifying what's already in there as new information becomes available. I haven't included any footnotes or citations in the interest of saving some paper. I would welcome your comments, questions, corrections, etc. on the material and look forward to hearing them. There's neither pride of authorship nor wishful thinking on my part... my only interest is accuracy.

Please don't bother to send it back to me. My computer manages all the data and prints it for me. Besides, I imagine it will become obsolete as soon as I have the benefit of the information in Our Family Circle.

I'll reply to your last letter in the next few days... I wanted to get this in the mail and on its way to you.

Best regards,
