SIMMONS.

Moses Simmons came from Holland in the Fortune in the spring of 1621 that being the first ship to arrive after the Mayflower Moses Symonson (as the name was orig: inally but now corrupted into Simmons) came to Plymouth in the Fortune; and being says Winslow "a child of one that was in communion with the Dutch Church at Leyden is admitted into Church fellowship at Plymouth in New England & his child: ren also to baptism as well as our own."
He was one of the first settlers of Dux: bury and an original proprietor in Bridg: water. His sons Moses & Thomas settled the former in Duxbury where he died in 1689, and the latter in Scituate where he was a householder before 1647.

Dear cousin Sarah * * * I regret that I can hardly help you in this matter as I have been trying to find out for a good while about the Simmons * * I could not find out who was my ^{great} grand father. I only know he came with his wife from Ireland but from what part was hidden * * no dates of the arrival of the boy who was born at sea and landed at Boston, he was called Ebenezer and * * their son Ebenezer was blown up in the Frigate Randolph in a fight at night with the 64 gun ship Yarmouth 7 March 1778 off the Bermudas - this is the only Simmons I hear or read of concerned in that war. Father was only seven when the war broke out. He was born on 18 april 1765. He married Sarah the daughter of Col.
Isaac Hayne the Martyr, died early in
