

April 3, 1991

Dear Dr. Peoples,

Thank you very much for your gracious letter, and invitation, written on Easter Day, 1991. My husband is very pleased at the possibility of his children being a recognized part of South Carolina history. Our letter of acceptance will go to Charleston soon.

Reed is also interested in knowing where his Pope connection might stand in relation to the Society of First Families. Sara Jenkins (sister to Catherine Scott Jenkins Stoney), was married to Joseph James Pope whose ancestor, Thomas Pope, came to South Carolina from Virginia in 1690. Joseph James was the grandfather of Addie if my information is correct.

We would like very much to visit with you again and maybe you can help answer some of these questions as well as clearing up some conflicting dates which we have encountered.

I have enclosed a copy of the new Samuel Reed Stoney "page" which I revised when we realized that Suzanne had not been acknowledged. We also corrected May Galley's name. It seems that she was named May Stoney at birth but baptised May Pickens. She is currently interested in DAR membership in Bella Vista, Ark. where she lives with her husband Howard J. Ross. Their daughter, Galley Ross Taylor was married on February 9th, 1991 to Elias Pinkney of Ridgeland and continues to make Ridgeland her home.

Thank you again for your letter and we hope to be seeing you again soon.

Sincerely,
Mary S. Salley
