Note. According to family data William Henry Tzebird was the brother mentioned in the famous letter of 1888. When I started this work I saw that Henry and Mary (Doherty) Tzebird had another son William who died in 1756 when Doris (Tzebird) Coleman sent me an outline of her ancestors I realized that she was one ancestor short. ^{where} On a visit to Tom and his family on Sullivan's Isle - Blanche and I went to the Chas. Library where I found a book by Eric Reville (1944) "S.C. Marriage Records" which mentioned that Henry Tzebird had married Catherine Bowman, of St. Helena Parish. I went on to say "document dated 23rd Nov. 1778, recites that Catherine owned 1/4 estate of Thos. Bowman etc." hence my mistake as to Thos. Bowman being her father.

Thought you might be interested in these family outlines which show very clearly what I lack. John and Sara Tzebird of Mico, Ga found some interesting family transactions in the Colonial Records of the S.C. Library - Have you ever checked those? Mrs Stanley has also sent data from Savannah Papers and intends to check more thoroughly the Colonial data.
