Married Fifty Years Ago

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM C. THOMPSON

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Thompson, 512 East Market street, will observe their fiftieth wedding anniversary Saturday. The couple were married in this city by the late Rev. John Price, pastor of Elm Park Methodist Church.
 Mrs. Thompson is the former Gertrude Albright Space, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Space, and resided in Dunmore. Mr. Thompson is a descendant of Judge Jesse Fell, who first burned anthracite coal in a grate. His family resided in this region at the time of the Wyoming massacre. He was born in the Pine Brook section, where his father owned and operated a brick yard. For the past seventy years, with the exception of about eight years, he has lived in Green Ridge.
 Following a few years spent in surveying, during which time he was in charge of construction work on the Adirondack division of the New York Central, he was engaged in mine surveying and later was associated with several retail grocery firms in a selling capacity. Prior to his retirement a few years ago he was employed by the Eureka Specialty Printing Company.

 Mr. and Mrs. Thompson had a son who died in infancy and have a daughter, Helen, the wife of Floyd B. Foster, 510 East Market street. There are two grandchildren, Donald T. Foster, a student at Scranton-Keystone Junior College, and Marjorie B. Foster, a student at North Scranton Junior High School.
 Mr. Thompson is convalescing at his home following a major operation in October. No formal observance of the anniversary has been planned.

Wed in Green Ridge Assembly of God Church

CLARENCE THOMPSON, FORMER WEST PITSTON MAN, IS DEAD

H.2

Pittston, April 9. — Clarence Thompson, Philadelphia, a former West Pittston resident, died Tuesday in Philadelphia Hospital following an illness. The funeral will be held Saturday from the home, 5433 Mervine Street, Philadelphia, and burial will be in that city.

The deceased has resided in West Pittston for many years and news of his death has occasioned much sorrow among numerous friends in that borough. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Thompson, and while a resident of West Pittston, was employed as a driver for the Hartman Bus Lines.

Surviving are his widow, the former Margaret Tarleton, Wyoming; a daughter, Margaret, a student nurse at St. Joseph's Hospital, Philadelphia.

Miss Alice Jane Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Thompson, 1113 Prescott Ave., was married Saturday, Nov. 17, at 4 P. M. in Green Ridge Assembly of God Church to Alex Savicki, son of Mrs. Anna Savicki, 1001 South Irving Ave.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Balliet of Petersburg Full Gospel Tabernacle and was preceded by a recital given by Mrs. Faith Regal, pianist, and Mrs. A. T. Smith, vocalist. The altar was decorated with baskets of white pompons and cibotium ferns.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. Her white satin gown had a yoke of illusion with an insert of tiny glass sequins and the full skirt ended in a graceful train. Her veil of illusion was edged with lace and was attached to a pearlized orange blossom tiara. She carried a white Bible with white pompons and an orchid.

Mrs. Raymond Picirille, matron of honor, wore a lilac taffeta gown trimmed with deep purple velvet, with a purple velvet head band trimmed with lilac net. She carried bronze pompons.

Miss Helen Thompson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Lois Smith was bridesmaid. They wore rose and aquamarine satin and taffeta gowns trimmed with matching velvet. They wore headbands to match their gowns and they carried yellow pompons. Sandra Lee Gibbs, flower girl, wore a Kelly green taffeta and velvet dress and a green bonnet and carried yellow pompons.

Kenneth Loeffler was best man. Ushers were Raymond Picirille and Frank Lancia.

After a reception at Petersburg Community Center, Mr. and Mrs. Savicki left for New York, the bride wearing a plum tone suit, black velvet accessories and an orchid corsage. They will reside in Bethlehem where the bridegroom, a veteran of three years of service with the Navy Air Force, is employed by Bethlehem Steel Co. He attended Technical High School. The former Miss Thompson attended Dunmore High School.
