Lyman D. Wooster

Lyman D. Wooster of the Cypress died at the age of 100 on July 28, 2018, after a long wonderful life. He was born September 22, 1917 in Hays, Kansas to the late Dr. L. Dwight and Mary O. Wooster. He moved to Hilton Head Island, SC in 1988 from Fairfax, VA.

Lyman held degrees from Ft. Hays State University and the University of Pennsylvania, the latter where he also taught political science. He was a graduate of the National War College, class of 1969. During World War II he served in the Army in the African, Pacific, and European theaters, and was recalled to active duty for two years during the Korean conflict. Upon release from active duty, Lyman entered the civil service in Washington, DC and served in Army and Defense Department Intelligence, where he was an analyst of Soviet military and political affairs, and in the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency. He ended his government career in that agency.

Throughout his adult life, Lyman was active in civil affairs. As a resident of Fair-
