Dear Robert,

Here is a copy of the Mathews Family photograph, and the inscription on the back as well as I could read it. Sad to say my great-grandmother, Rebecca Mathews, is not in the picture. I don't think I have one of her.

Miss Annie's book was at the New York Public Library, so I have collected the information required for the Huguenot Society.

Meeting our cousins has been a splendid experience for Gabby and me. I really hadn't expected Gabby to express the enthusiasm she did for family cemeteries and geneologies. Her cousin, Christina Newhouse, also has a lively interest. I am currently trying to pry loose the copy of Our Family Circle Christina has in her possession. I am hoping to work out a joint custody arrangement. Chris lives in Miami, but she visited in June. We made copies of all the papers I have, including Baker and Lanneau. Her mother and great-grandmother (my grandmother) were both members of the Ann Hutchison Chapter of the D.A.R. Chris has been in contact with them, and plans to join that Chapter. I also have a receipt for dues paid to the Huguenot Society of South Carolina by my grandfather, Jefferson Bennett Lanneau, covering the period from April 13, 1923 to April 13, 1925, for $4.

Gabby has a neat picture of you and Cora taken at the reunion. She is in Pittsburgh this weekend, and I don't know where she put the picture. When she returns next week, I'll send it along to you.

Love to Cora.

Kiss kiss,

Jane
