 25 Octr 1807

[note: here 3¼ inches were cut from the Bible. John McNish apparently wrote something relating to John Henry and Ann Caroline--perhaps about where they were buried and then decided to move it to page 678 and cut out the portion he had written. The reference "do see 25 Octr. 1807" would appear to support this.]

The above is a true copy from the Family Bible
By: Thos. C. Dupont.

There was also a letter affixed to the Bible.

Died at his residence in Summerville, So. Ca. on the 21st July 1843 Cornelius Dupont M.D. in the 58th year of his age.

Dr. D. was a gentleman of cultivated intellect, excellent education, and fine social powers and his immense skill, unwearied attention and success as a physician, when engaged in the practice of his profession--(which in his latter days he abandoned except on special occasions when his services were cheerfully rendered without fee or reward) will long be remembered with gratitude by many who under God owed the preservation of their lives to him. Of these individuals is the writer of this brief notice who wishes to offer this slight tribute at least to his memory--
