

~~MILAM FAMILY LETTERS~~

DO YOU HAVE COPIES OF THESE LETTERS? Yes

The earliest record of the ~~Milam~~ family is ~~John Milam, Sr.~~ (born about 1725) and who lived in Halifax County, Virginia. His home was on Bradley's Creek, a stream with headwaters near Republican Grove and emptying into the Banister River in the Meadville district. It is believed that he had formerly lived in Louisa County, Virginia.
The earliest entry in the Halifax County deed records referring to ~~John Milam~~, is of a deed to him from John Stuart, dated October 1, 1764, conveying 700 acres of land on Bradley's Creek.

Will of John Milam,
dated 3 June 1789,
recorded 28 Aug 1789,
Bk. A-12, p.35,
York Co., S.C.
Estate Records: names wife Judith;
"my loving children
John, Bartlett,
Benjamin, Thomas and Nancey" and
"Mary Ireland my Grandaughter".
Son Thomas Milam
to be Sole Executor.

The enumerations of heads of families of the County of Halifax, State of Virginia, for the year of 1782, includes ~~John Milam, Sr.~~, (he was living in 1788.)

~~John Milam, Sr., had six sons:~~

~~Bartlett, Samuel, Benjamin, John, Thomas and James.~~

~~Bartlett Milam, Sr., son of John~~

~~Milam, Sr.~~ acquired lands on Bradley's Creek in Halifax County, Virginia. The deed conveying this land dated November 16, 1775, in the land records of Halifax County. In the records are seven entries of deeds to and from Bartlett Milam. On February 25, 1798 he sold his lands in Halifax County, Virginia and moved with his family to Laurens District, South Carolina. ~~Three of his brothers, Thomas, Benjamin and~~ ~~John~~ had moved from Halifax County, Virginia and set-led in Laurens District, South Carolina, several years prior to Bartlett moving there.

The enumerations of heads of families of Halifax County, Virginia for the year of 1785 includes ~~Bartlett Milam~~. He died in Laurens District, South Carolina, on September 11, 1822; ~~Elizabeth Milam, wife~~
~~of Bartlett Milam~~, died July 18, 1823.

MILAM FAMILY LETTERS

DO YOU HAVE COPIES OF THESE LETTERS? OK

The earliest record of the Milam family is John Milam, Sr., (born about 1725) and who lived in Halifax County, Virginia. His home was on Bradley's Creek, a stream with headwaters near Republican Grove and emptying into the Banister River in the Meadville district. It is believed that he had formerly lived in Louisa County, Virginia. The earliest entry in the Halifax County deed records referring to John Milam is of a deed to him from John Stuart, dated October 1, 1764, conveying 700 acres of land on Bradley's Creek.

The enumerations of heads of families of the County of Halifax, State of Virginia, for the year of 1782, includes John Milam, Sr., (he was living in 1788.)

John Milam, Sr., had six sons; Bartlett, Samuel, Benjamin, John, Thomas and James.

Bartlett Milam, Sr., son of John Milam, Sr., acquired lands on Bradley's Creek in Halifax County, Virginia. The deed conveying this land dated November 16, 1775, in the land records of Halifax County. In the records are seven entries of deeds to and from Bartlett Milam. On February 25, 1796 he sold his lands in Halifax County, Virginia and moved with his family to Laurens District, South Carolina. Three of his brothers, Thomas, Benjamin and John had moved from Halifax County, Virginia and settled in Laurens District, South Carolina, several years prior to Bartlett's moving there.

The enumerations of heads of families of Halifax County, Virginia for the year of 1785 includes Bartlett Milam. He died in Laurens District, South Carolina, on September 11, 1822; Elizabeth Milam, wife of Bartlett Milam, died July 18, 1823.