

Sept. 12, 1974

Dear Rev. Peoples,

Sorry for the delay in answering your letter. I've been busy getting everyone back in school.

My Halifax information just didn't go back far enough. From two different sources, I found the Sept. 8, 1724 Milhan-Gardner wedding in Lancaster Co.

I have a lot of Harrison information, but couldn't connect it with your family.

Sorry I couldn't do better, but I'll keep looking.

I have a problem in South Carolina. My ancestor, Jennet or Jeanette Johnston born 1823 (about) and her brother lost their parents to yellow fever. They were sent to live in N.C. I have no clue to her parents or brother's names. She married Wm. Blackstock Thompson, 1840, in N.C., named her eldest children Joseph and Marika.

Hope some of this information helps.

Sincerely,
Shirley Carter
