

Webb and Doughty.

Source: The South Carolina Historical and Genealogical Magazine
Volume XVII, No. 1-January, 1916.--pages 8-11.

(List of persons ordered out of Charles Town April 28, 1782) 7-1/2

Among 60 names the following:

- | | | | |
|----------------------------|----|------------------------------|----|
| 1 | 27 | r | 44 |
| Dan Cannon & family | | M .Lightwood & family | |
| 28 | | | |
| John Webb & " | | | |
| s | 29 | | |
| Tho Doughty & " | | | |

Notes: 7-1/2 The absence of the files of the Royal Gazette mentioned above prevents the verification of this list. Most of the information as to persons expelled is taken from the almanac of John Tobler, published in 1782 when the British were in possession of Charleston, and from the almanac for 1785 published after the end of the War. Both of these almanacs may be found in the Charleston Library.

27 Daniel Cannon. Cannonsborough was named after him. It comprised a large tract of land with mill ponds north of Bull Street and West of Smith and Coming Street.

28 John Webb. Webb & Doughty were in business together in 1785.

29 Thomas Doughty. In 1782 he was a carpenter at 108 Meeting Street.

44 Mr. Lightwood. His house stood at the S.E. corner of Lightwood Alley, now Atlantic Street and meeting Street.

Signatures of John Webb & Thos. Doughty appear in 1775 on a list of 48 names signing the revised articles of the 2 Independent Churches.

Source: The History of the Circular Church. W

History of the Independent or Congregational Church of Charleston, S.C. by George W. Edwards. Commonly called Circular Church.