A Study of ~~Early Generations~~^A of the Miles Family of S.C. Planters.

By Rev. Robert E. H. Papples

John Miles arrived in Charles Town from England not later than 1687 as proved by the fact that his son, Thomas, who died 21 Feb. 1756 aged 69 was "a native of this province".¹ The earliest ^{extant} record of John is on 9 March 1693 when he was among those appointed to appraise the estate of Thomas Hill, deceased.² On 31 Dec. 1694 John was granted 140 acres ^{"being upon Account of arrival rights for himself"} ~~for arrival of self and Arnold Hoskins~~ (Hoskins?)³; on 16 Feb. 1695 he was among those appointed to appraise the estate of Capt. Clarke.⁴ He purchased from the Lords Proprietors 160 acres 8 April 1696⁵ and secured a warrant for an additional 500 acres 7 April 1704,⁶ the latter located "between Henry Samways and John Cattle". On 5 Jan. 1708 John and his wife, Mary, signed an indent selling for 13 £ 26 acres on Coppins Creek, part of a 300 acre tract he owned, for glebe lands for St. Andrew's Parish. John witnessed the will of his son-in-law, Richard Vincent, 23 Jan. 1719⁷ and that of John Girardeau 24 Feb. 1721⁸. St. Andrew's Parish Register shows he was buried 28 July 1722.⁹ The seal of John Miles bearing the crest and motto

Gomerset, England is in the possession of a descendant, indicating a common source of the families. Crest: a dexter arm embowed in armour ppr. garnished or, supporting with the hand an anchor also ppr.
