

In Augusta Ceremony

Morrison-Taylor Vows Read

AUGUSTA - Miss Jo Ann Taylor of Augusta became the bride of Joseph Valentine Morrison Jr. of Savannah Saturday July 25, at 5 p.m. in the Church of the Good Shepherd. The Rev. Allan Clarkson officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Creed Taylor of Demerest. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Valentine Morrison Sr. of Savannah. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length dress of embroidered silk organza over white peau de soie with a bell-shaped skirt and an overjacket. Her aisle-wide train was attached to a bow in the back.

A pillbox of crushed silk organza with appliques of Chantilly lace held her veil of illusion net. Her bouquet was of white roses, centered with a white purple - throated orchid.

Miss Laura Lee Hinson of Millhaven served as maid of honor, and Miss Lamar Morrison, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. John Law Jr. were bridesmaids. They wore A-line floor-length dresses of light blue silk trimmed in royal blue and carried bouquets of pink carnations centered with dark pink roses.

Mr. Morrison was his son's best man. Ushers were George Perry Southerland, cousin of the bride; Howard Morrison Jr., cousin of the bridegroom; William Belvin Jr.; and Eugene Van Landinham Herrin.

The bride's mother wore a street-length dress of mauve pink lace over taffeta with matching accessories and a white purple-throated orchid corsage.

The mother of the bridegroom wore an empire style dress in cream chiffon and a corsage of pink roses.

Following a reception in Barber Hall at the church, the bride changed into a blue silk suit with lace pillbox hat and white patent leather shoes and bag. She wore the orchid from her corsage.

The couple will make their home at 2352 Minto St., Augusta.
