MEMO FOR YOUR ~~YOUR~~ FAMILY HISTORY RESEARCH FILES: "The Rosary

is to date the most famous American art-song . . . Nevins in this part of the country [near Pittsburgh], so many that church in Sewickley are said to grow confused and murmur - 'Our Father who art a Nevin.' Ethelbert was the fifth child in a family of eight. His father, Robert Peebles Nevin[♠] . . . wrote for the Atlantic Monthly . . . He was a poet and also a musician...The first grand piano that had ever been hauled over the Alleghenies was brought for her [his mother's] use."
