

Miss Chisolm, Mr. Johnson
Wed in First Baptist Church

Miss Lilah Elaine Chisolm and Michael Demery Johnson were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony at six o'clock, August 6, at the First Baptist Church in Plant City, Florida, with the Chaplain Thomas J. Price, Jr., of Florida Southern College, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. William Dee Chisolm, former Lilah Peeples, of Estill, and the late Mr. Chisolm, formally of Brunson, and Columbia. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Stoney Lawton Peeples and the late Mr. Peeples of Estill, and the late Mr. and Mrs. John Edwin Chisolm of Brunson.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Demery Johnson of Fernandina Beach, Florida.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms, brass candelabra with lighted tapers, and baskets of white gladiolia, carnations, pom-poms, and gypsophyllia. All of the pews were marked with bouquets of lily of the valley and bows of white satin ribbon.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Margaret Brantley, organist.

Given in marriage by her brother, William Dee Chisolm, Jr., of St. Augustine, Fla., the bride was lovely in her formal length, ivory gown, of pure silk organza and re-embroidered lace. The fitted bodice featured a high scalloped neckline, accented with a cluster of pearls, and Dresden sleeves which came to a point on the wrist. Self-covered buttons trimmed the sleeves and extended down the back of the bodice, which was accented by a bow, and centered with a pearl. A high rise waist-line accented the bell skirt. Completing the picture was a double mantilla border with matching lace flowing into a cathedral length train. She carried a nosegay of bridal sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Miss Cherie Langland, of Plant City, was her Maid of Honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Betsy Laseter, Judy Best, and Mary Clark, of Plant City, Miss Cindy Anderson, of Murfreesboro, Tennessee, Miss Patty Wood, of Belle Grade, Florida, and the Misses Sharon and Dalana Johnson, sisters of the groom, of Fernandina Beach, Fla.

They wore formal length gowns of pink organdy. A fitted bodice accentuated the high neckline and ruffled stand-up collar, and long puffed sleeves. Tucking and small self-buttons extending down the bodice, highlighted the "old-fashioned" look. Shades of pink roses embroidered the neckline and empire waist, and an a-line skirt completed the picture. They wore matching bows with streamers in their hair, and carried nosegays of pink, pixie carnations.

Carolina Lynn Chisolm, niece of the bride, was flower girl, and wore a floor length dress, similar to the bridesmaids. She carried a basket of pink roses. William Dee Chisolm, III, nephew of the bride was ring bearer.

Mr. Johnson attended his son as best man. Grooms-men were, Lieutenant Stoney Chisolm of Albuquerque, New Mexico, brother of the bride, Pete Burhyte, of Syracuse, New York, Raymond Ray, of Lakeland, Fla., Ronnie Holland, of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., John Pope, Charles White, and Bob Causey, of Plant City, and Terry Purvis, and Jeffrey Johnson, brother of the groom, of Fernandina Beach, Florida.

Honorary Bridesmaids were sorority sisters of the Bride, Miss Linda Sapp of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., Miss Carol Deane Duncan of Tampa, Fla., Miss Mary Decker, of Winter Haven, Fla., Miss Martha Nelle Alderman, of Birmingham, Alabama, Miss Allyson Kinsey and Miss Lynn Powell of West Palm Beach, Miss Suzi Cooper of Arlington, Virginia, and Miss Katy Hopper, of Greencove Springs, Fla.

The mother of the bride wore an aqua lace dress with a scalloped neckline and long bell sleeves. The mother of the groom wore a mint green sleeveless dress with a fitted waist and lace over-skirt. They wore corsages of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony, the bride's mother entertained with a reception.

For traveling, the bride wore a navy suit, trimmed in white and accented with gold buttons and matching accessories. She wore a rose corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Mr. Johnson received his BS degree in journalism from Florida Southern College and holds a position with Kraft Foods, Citrus Division. Mrs. Joonson is a senior at Florida Southern College and is a member of Alpha Delta Pi Social Sorority. Following their wedding trip, the couple will live in Lakeland, Fla.
