

PUBLIC RECORD OFFICE

Chancery Lane London WC2

Telephone 01-405 0741

Mrs E Dulight
38 Perry St
N Y C
10014

Please reply to The Keeper
Your reference

Our reference

Date 13 August 1982

Dear Madam

Thank you for your recent letter.

A preliminary search in the most likely court records has not revealed a case which is obviously the one you want. We cannot undertake more detailed research on your behalf. One of the following professional agents, however, may be able to do so:

Mr C S Clarke
5 Shamrock House
Hillcrest Road
London SE26 6XZ

Mrs D M Clarke
5 Durham Road
London
N2 9DP

This office can accept no responsibility for arrangements between agents and their clients.

Yours faithfully

Dr J B Post
Search Department

I wrote re your ancestor's Court case records, Weeks ago.

JBP/kk

NB: My mother-in-law was once addressed as "Mrs. De Wiglet" — so my father-in-law (fondly) called her that occasionally.

My sister-in-law was charmed when a Nursery School student called her "Miss Delight". Once.

My maids almost invariably called me "Mrs. Do Right".

De-light is a new variation...