Dear Mr. Rhodes,

First, let me apologize for being so late in answering your letter. It was time for our next issue of the quarterly and I was involved in that.

I did not find any record of burials for James Walker that would fit your description. There is a James Walker buried in Walker Cem. #1: James, b. Oct. 26, 1802 - died Feb. 13, 1886.

There is not a record for burial of Emma Walker (or Mrs. James A.).

In the marriage records: J.A. Walker and Emma Rhodes
2 May 1872, Bk D, P. 185

Ella B. Walker and F. J. Jeffcoat
25 Oct 1899, Bk F, p. 130

The 1885 Census of Jefferson Co., Fl. Dist. 8, p. 12, lists the following:

J.A. Walker-age 45-
School Supt.-born SC, father b. SC, Mother b. SC
E.M. Walker-age 45-
Housekeeper-born SC, father b. SC, Mother b. SC
E.B. Walker-age 12-
born Fl, father b. SC, Mother b. SC

I hope this information will help you and again I apologize for being late in answering.

Yours very truly,

Bonney A. McClellan
