

Whole Branch Cemetery
Copied by Rev. Robert Peeples

220 East Henry St.

wife and Husband

Sacred/
to the memory/
of/
John Rhodes/
who departed this life/on the 4th of October 1827/
Dyed 80 years 8 months and 2 days/
The righteous shall go away/
into life Eternal/
Matthew 25 Chap. 16 verse/

Sacred/ to the memory of Mrs. Mary Rhodes/ wife of John Rhodes, Esqr. of Beaufort/ who departed this life for a better/ on the 19th of October 1811/ aged 63 years and 29 days/ under the full conviction of a blessed immortality/ her last words were full of love and praise/ to her God and Saviour in whom she hath relied/for the recompense of a well spent life/ her lot is fallen in this blessed land/ where God is truly known/ He filled her cup with liberal hand/ 'Tis he supports his own/ She has past the gloomy vale of death/ From fear and danger freed/ God was her aiding rod and staff/ with him she wished to be/ This stone was erected to her Memory/ by her son/ Nathl. Henry Rhodes.

→

Potter/
Henrietta Rhodes Potter/
died on the 26th of March 1852/

(Mrs Paul Hamilton)

Her infant daughter, H. R. Potter/
died on the/ 11th of February 1834/
Of such is the kingdom of Heaven.

son

In Memory of/
Nathaniel Henry Rhodes/
son of/John and Mary Rhodes/
who died at Beaufort/
on the 10th day of July 1817/
after three days severe illness/
in the 35th year of his age.

Nihil quod totoget non ornavit.

Reader! Within this tomb the relics lie/ of one who nobly lived nor feared to die/ _____ genius, science, eloquence combined/
_____ rarest virtue and a polished mind/ _____ rest faith and works
by Grace approved/ _____ and humble honored and beloved/ Husband Father son Physician Friend/ was his course and full of hope his end.

grandchildren

To the Memory/ of/ Dr. John Rhodes/
son of/ Dr. Nathaniel & H. Rhodes/ and Mary his wife/ died 15th November 1830/ aged 21 years and/ six months/ This tribute of regard is the/ offering of his bereaved sisters/ a memorial of their affection/ and his worth/ Blessed are the dead who/ die
in the Lord.

Sacred to the memory of /
John Rhodes

who departed this life on the 4th of October 1827 /
aged 80 years 8 months and 2 days

The righteous shall go away /
into life. Eternal

Matthew 25 Chap. 16 verse

70.2, 1747

In memory of /

Nathaniel Henry Rhodes /
son of John & Mary Rhodes /

who died at Beaufort /

on the ~~July 14~~ 10th day of July 1817 /
after 3 days severe illness /
in the 35th year of his age

1817
35
1782

Nihil quod litiget non transivit /

Reader! Within this tomb the relics lie /
of one who nobly lived nor feared to die /
His genius, science, eloquence combined /
with rarest virtue and a polished mind, /
nobly met faith and works by Grace approved, /
and humble, honored and beloved / Husband, Father, son, Physician, Friend /
was his course and full of hope his end.

Sacred / to memory of
Mrs. Mary Rhodes / wife of John Rhodes, Esq^r of Beaufort / who departed this life for a better / on the 19th of October 1811 / aged 63 years and 29 days /
under the full conviction of a blessed immortality / her last words were full of love and praise / to her God and Saviour
in whom she hath relied / for the recompense
of a well spent life / her lot is fallen in this blessed land / where God is truly known /
He filled her cup with liberal hand / Tis he supports his own / She has past the gloomy ~~pace~~^{wale} of death / From fear and danger freed / God was her aiding rod & staff /
with him she wished to be /
This stone was erected to her memory / by her son / Nath^l. Henry Rhodes

Sept. 20, 1748

(note: She was born Mary Talbot / Talbird, dau.
of Henry Talbot / Talbird)

R.E.H.P.