Mrs. G. R. Heard, now of Savan- nah, has paid a recent visit to Rocky Ford, Scarboro and Sylvania. Dur- ing her "flying visit" she received a warm welcome from those near and dear to her. many of whom are doubly endeared to her for kindness shown to her during and since her sad bereavement in the loss of her dear husband. Nearly a year ago the dear husband's sudden death left a pall of gloom over a wife's and sister's heart, that can only be healed when the all wise Maker says, "Souls, thou hast suffered enough!" Oh, precious thought to know that for him there is no more sadness nor tears.

A DOUBLE WEDDING.

The Claytons, the Rhodes, and the Williams with all their kith and kin met at Mr. Kesler Clayton's home in Jenkins county Sunday to wit- ness the marriages of Tommie Rhodes and Miss Orrie Clayton, and Jesse Clayton and Miss Susie Ella Williams.

Rev. P. I. P. Edenfield, their pas- tor, preformed the impressive cere- mony after which they all sat down to one of the biggest and best din- ners ever spread in that "neck of the woods."

These are all splendid young peo- ple through whose veins flow the best blood of Georgia and South Carolina and their friends and rela- tives on both sides of the Savannah river breathe for them the prayer that their future lives may be as fair and pleasant as their cloudless wedding day.

PHILO SOPHIAN SOCIETY.

The Sophians challenged the Mathians to a debate for last Fri- day afternoon. They failed to show up, therefore forfeiting the debate to us, as they had accepted we were considered the winners without de- bating. At the close of school we will receive the credit.

We had a business meeting as no program was prepared. Songs and yells were also practised. We were glad to have one of our old mem- bers with us, Kate Ziegler, graduate of last year.

The Philo Sophian's are sponsor- ing a play called "Take my Advice." It is to be put on in the near future, which will be composed of the town talent. Be sure and don't miss it. Come out and help boost the Sophian Society.
