Dear Robert:

Please tell me about Mrs. Martha Burns. I wrote her recently, and someone from the Society sent back a brief note, unsigned, that she was very ill, and in a nursing home.

If possible, please send her address, then if she will ever be able to read cards, then I will send some.

I have been corresponding with Pasteur J-P Gobat, Orvin, Suisse, who will retire at the end of the year, and will do some on Jean & Elias Robert for me. It looks more & more like Rev. P. Robert had a dau, who was the youngest child. She M-1 Wingate in Virginia, then to S. C. & re-M.

Mother made 99, and although she can not see, Cataracts, is doing fairly good. Me---I'm just getting older & groucher.

Other than several letters to France-Holland-Belgium, I have not done much. Rev. P. Robert was NOT at: Lyden, Holland; Bern Seminary, or leave thru Belgium, Antwerp. Where was he 1/1674-1/1682?????

Hoping you & yours are doing well, & with best regards, I am,

Yours very truly,
