Dear Robert:

For some reason, it has stuck in my mind, you questioned the statement in a written publication, that Jaques James D. Robert was in North Carolina, when his oldest son was killed. (About 1757)

Recently I have run into a note: Archibald Hamilton, Rowan, N. C. 1762; just after -- James Roberts being named Coroner 1757, of St James Santee. Maybe up there, named Coroner, & returned.

Also: Arch. Hamilton & Madeline Robert children are noted as having been born in N. Carolina 1740 & 1741 in Church Records; and I am thinking where James Robert went, his s in law went. It may be I am wrong as to the EXACT DATES, above; but the evidence seems to confirm-----they were there for a certain period of time.

I thought you would want to know. No need to reply, the pony express boys, do NOT need the business!

Best Regards,

Edward
