

Marion, South Carolina,
409 South Main Street,
November 5, 1934.

Mrs. George Clarke,
Beaulieu,
Savannah, Ga.

My dear Mrs. Clarke:

I am making another desperate effort to locate the elusive Richard Broughton.

I went to Beaufort last spring and met Mr. and Mrs. Tison, they were lovely to me, and most charming people. We went to the cemetery out from Grahamville, and copied the inscriptions on the Broughton tombstones there. Records of which you have. I found in the Clerk of Court's office quite a little about Richard Subbock Broughton. Will copy it for you the next time I am there if you would like, I did not have time then.

Mr. Tison said there was a Screven-Broughton marriage, and that Mr. Proctor Screven could tell me about it, and to write to you for his address .

Mary Elizabeth (Broughton) and her husband John William Wilkins had a son William Screven Wilkins, born about 1812, and I wondered if we could get any information of the Broughtons thro the Screvens.

Have you any more information ?

We enjoyed Mrs. Glover's visit to Marion this fall. Every one was glad to see her.

I recall with much pleasure the brief visit with you last fall, and hope we may meet again and establish our relationship.

Most sincerely,

Evelyn S. Johnson
(Mrs. Palmer Johnson)